*advantage of Estela's trust when she posted on Estela's page, trying to make Keisha do what Lucy wants) What should Keisha do? (Tell Lucy no, talk to a trusted adult about the situation, not be friends with Lucy anymore) It's always important to tell a trusted adult when we have a problem. We might think that they won't understand or might even get mad at us, but it's important to try. Everyone could probably use some help in figuring out how to stand up to a bully.

Who are some other trusted adults Keisha could tell? *(You want the children to name trusted adults, like mom, dad, grandparents, teachers, counselors, pastors, neighbors, and other trusted adults. If someone doesn't name the teacher, counselors, and other school personnel, provide these names as examples) Great!
